Village okays ban on paraphernalia

Can you define paraphernalia?

If you can't, you are not alone. The Antioch Village Board passed an ordinance Jan. 21, which makes it unlawful in Antioch to sell any type of instrument that aids the use of illegal drugs. Over 20 residents were in attendance at the meeting; some raising questions were concerned with the constitutionality of the proposed new law, while others spoke out of concern for youngsters in the community.

The board, which has had the ordinance in the works for only three weeks, met the opposition of a store owner, Peter Levas of Levas T-Shirts, whose business will be affected by the new ordinance, and another, Curt Johnson of Round About Records, who questioned the method by which the merchants whose businesses will be affected were notified of the proposed new law.

According to village attorney Andy Lynch, there is no law stating that anyone has to be notified in a situation such as this. The village board, out of courtesy did notify three Antioch businesses of the board's intent.

Levas stood before the board and questioned the constitutionality of the law, citing that "paraphernalia is defined differently by different people," thus, "how could the ordinance become law with a word that can't even be defined in it?"

ACCORDING TO LEVAS, his shop deals in "smoking utensils," but he does not "sell them with the intent for illegal use." He also said that he enforces an 18 year old age limit on those that buy any of the pipes that he sells.

Levas ended his struggle with the board and asked that he be able to seek legal counsel on his rights before they acted on the ordinance, and cited that "he only had three working days to react" to the proposed ordinance.

Haley asked the board if they wanted to allow extra time for that purpose, to which the board responded by passing the ordinance.

Others who addressed the board on the proposed paraphernalia ban, stated that the less available materials used in connection with the illegal use of drugs were, the better off the community was.

Superintendent of Antioch High School, Warren Polley, voiced his concern for the youth of the community, while planning commissioner, Tony Starcevic stated, "I'm not concerned with the constitutionality of the ordinance, but rather with the children of the community."

Haley stated that the board was acting upon the situation due to complaints board members had received individually.

According to Lynch, an ordinance of the type passed by the board, has only been tested in court once, and has been upheld, so "obviously it is regarded as constitutional."

IN OTHER ACTION the board:

Took a short recess to informally discuss the building of the senior citizen facility with Jim Fields, who represented the township board. Each board pledged $25,000 toward the partially grant funded project. The total cost of the project was listed as a little over 124,000, and the contract was granted to Benes Construction of Antioch.

Voted to send Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller, Lt. Tom Fisher and Garnet Cook to a three day seminar on rape and violent crimes in Des Plaines.

Authorized tag days for Antioch Band Parents Assn., Salvation Army and Little City Foundation.

Moved to support the Blumberg Blood drive sponsored by the Antioch Jaycees in memory of Dr. John Lorange.

Authorized Haley to appoint Daniel Lloyd and Edward Gromala as probationary firefighters on the Antioch Fire Department.

Still tickets for Jaycee event

Tickets for the Jaycees annual Distinguished Service Awards Banquet are still available at the following locations: First National Bank of Antioch, Antioch State Bank, Antioch Savings and Loan, Brauhaus, Lyons-Ryan Ford, Village Pub, Antioch Village Hall and the Antioch Township Hall.

The fun event will be held at St. Peter's Social Center on Feb. 2 and will feature keynote speaker Fred Foreman, republican candidate for states attorney, according to Jaycee Bill Anderson.

The winners of this year's DSA awards are Steve Wapon, outstanding educator; Bill Groeninger, outstanding professionalman, Tom Fisher, outstanding public servant, Tom Doolittle, outstanding farmer, Tim Osmond, outstanding young leader and Jeff Gokey, outstanding religious leader.

The $10 per person ticket includes dinner and entertainment featuring the band Favour.

According to Karl Schreiber, seated on monkey's lap, of Antioch, who received the giant stuffed pet for Christmas, it has to be walked outside or else she ends up with a testy chimp on her hands. Creek negotiations clogged; boards discuss objectives

In an adjourned Antioch Grade School Board meeting on Jan. 22, the school board Sequoit Creek committee met with Mayor Michael Haley and consulting engineer Frank Angelotti to try to reach a conclusion on the effects on the Sequoit Creek rechannelization and the alterations that can be made to accommodate those effects.

The school board contended that the village's proposed plan of rechannelization will have adverse effects on the school's property. After reviewing a study, prepared by Harza engineering of Chicago, the school board cited that people's safety is in jeopardy because of the imbalanced water flow on each side of the channel. The school board held that if the capacity for water on each side of the channel is the same, the flow would not be as dangerous at its most crucial point, which is adjacent to school property.

According to Angelotti, the concerns that the school board is showing can be corrected by altering the villages plans somewhat.

Haley's main objection with the school board's hesitation in the channelization project is that they are holding up the progress of the project. "We just want to come to an agreement and get the project finished, he said. "We can make the changes that the school board is proposing, but they must state their objections differently than they have."

The school board's original object for stopping the project was to have the rechannelization plans studied by their own engineers to determine the effects the project would have on the school's property. "They have that information now, and they should make their objections known with the Department of Transportation. We will make adjustments, but even their engineers told them our plan was a good one," Haley said.

"There is no guarantee of what will happen to the watershed since most of that property is out of the village's jurisdiction," stated schoolboard member Ed Haley. "We're concerned with the future of the school's property," he added.

Good news in The News

It was reported that Russ Fairchild returned to his home Jan. 23 after a stay in the hospital. He suffered broken bones after being hit by a car during one of his daily strolls in Antioch. He leaves the hospital after a three week stay, and he will be using a walker during his recovery.

Area business urged to contact Job Service

By LISA WILKIE

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry is a definite pillar in the Antioch community. Aside from doing the regular things that a Chamber does, they provide the facility for the free Job Service program to operate from. This employment service is something that, according to Joyce Clement, job service representative, area business and industry is not using. "We have the prospective employees, but we lack participating employers in the area," she said.

"Dixie (Chamber executive secretary Sparks) is so cooperative with helping applicants that we have no problems with that part of the service," she added.

Ms. Clement cited several reasons for the increased need for business and industry in the Antioch area to enlist in the agencies free service. First of all, she pointed out that people were interested in staying closer to home due to the energy problems.

SECONDLY, there are people just looking for part time employment to supplement incomes that don't want to travel from home.

Also, there are many retirees, women and widows seeking employment that would fit many area business needs. And lastly, most importantly she thinks, is the fact that Job Service acts as a screening agency for business.

"We match up the job description with the prospective employee skills and desires, thus eliminating a step for the employer, again eliminating a time consuming step for the business," she stated.

Job Service is a part of the state Department of Labor and has been operating in Antioch for two years. The state can take the service out of the area if they think it is not serving a purpose. "If it looks as though we're not placing enough people or if we don't have the area businesses enlisting our services, we do face elimination," Ms. Clement said.

Anyone can use the service located at the Chamber of Commerce office, 880 Main St. There are lists of job descriptions and applications that will be filled and used, if a job possibility comes in that matches an application. Also, there is microfilm that perspective employees can view to see what the job market is outside the immediate area.

Ms. Clement adds that high schools handle students seeking jobs, and that the program offered from the Chamber headquarters is mainly for adults.

The steps a business must take to be listed with the Job Service are quite simple. "All they have to do is call and list a job description. We keep the employment situation updated with them, and search for the best applicants we have when they are seeking employees," Ms. Clement stated.

Ms. Clement can be contacted through the Job Service office in Fox Lake at 578-9200.

VIEWS FILM — Chamber executive secretary, Dixie Sparks and Job Service Representative, Joyce Clement, demonstrate how to use a microfilm viewer. This viewer is available to people who sign up with the employment program, and keeps listed employment opportunities outside the Antioch area. Ms. Clement is available at the Chamber office, 880 Main St. on every Friday. Currently the program is searching for Antioch businesses to enlist in Job Service. It is a free agency. — Photo by Lisa Wilkie.

Legion Auxiliary strives to accomplish seven goals

According to Rose Kennedy of the American Legion Auxiliary, point one of the auxiliary's seven point program has been accomplished. That point was to spread cheer through the giving of gifts, greeting cards and parties for those in the hospital at Christmas time.

The six points left to accomplish through the year are to provide each hospitalized veteran who receives $75 per month or less compensation, with a book from the Canteen that is valued at $1. This lets the vet purchase small items at the Canteen or commissary.

Also, the auxiliary will work to get donations for the fresh fruit fund to make it possible to furnish hospital recuperators with the healthy and welcome treat that is much in demand by hospital patients.

Point four is to get donations to help diabetics and asthmatic veterans whose financial situation prohibits them to obtain this medication for himself. Applications for monies from this fund are available from the director of hospital services at the department of officers.

Each year at Easter time, a gift valued at approxi-

Public welcome

Concurrent with its Open Meetings Policy, the United Way of Lake County invites members of the press and the general public to attend meetings of its board of directors.

All decisions made by the United Way of Lake County regarding funding, admission of agencies, and social service planning are the responsibility of its volunteer board of directors. Lake County residents may observe these meetings to gain further insight into the workings of the United Way.

Meetings of the board of directors are generally held at 4 p.m. the third Thursday of the month.

Executive Committee meetings are generally held the first Tuesday of the month at 3 p.m.

mately $1.25 with a card from the American Legion Auxiliary, or an Easter card containing a Canteen book is given to each veteran spending the time in the hospital or nursing home. This is the time in the hospital or nursing home. This is the auxiliary's fifth point.

The last point the auxiliary strives for, is maintenance of the veterans craft exchange. This is not for profit. The craft shop is open from Dec. 15, and is the only shop of its kind in the nation sponsored by the department of the American Legion Auxiliary. The auxiliary also donates to the Christmas dance that all able veterans that can attend, do.

Mrs. Kennedy added that the auxiliary does its best to contribute to these causes as they divide $100 among these seven points.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Seems like one of our prominent educators sent ahead $10 to a tour service to see the dog races while vacationing in Florida, only to find out on arrival that shuttle bus service from the hotel was free and admission to the race was only $1. Then the club house at the track was full and he and his wife had to sit on the finish line where there was a poor view of the race. It doesn't always pay to be prepared!

Mr. Maplethorpe at the Antioch Fire Safety building says that Sunday, March 9, has been tentatively set for the open house at the new facility. Give everybody a chance to see what the building looks like.

Bunch of celebrations to remember...Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schmidt celebrated 60 years together on the 19th; Wally and Beab Forbrich celebrate their 45th on the 27th. Bill Jordsen has a birthday Jan. 26, and Brian Murphy will be two on the 23rd.

John Joseph is a new arrival at the John and Joan Horan home of Hillside in Antioch. The couple adopted the little fella who weighed eight pounds and two ounces and brought him home on Jan. 9. Grandparents are Jack and Dorothy Horan of Antioch and Frank and Bernie Ficht of Waukegan. Great grandparents are John Horan of Antioch and Irene Pallas of Nebraska.

What a week, or should I say weekend? So many things happened this weekend in Antioch, that I don't know where to begin.

First off, the Antioch High School Sequoits were two for two, winning basketball games against Warren, 76-60, and Lake Forest, 48-45. That ends a five game losing streak for the team which will host Grayslake next Saturday. Coach Roger Andrews tells me that attendance isn't what it used to be. So come on kids, support your high school team, have a hot dog and cheer your hearts out.

Speaking of sports, I was so glad to see the terrible towels of Pittsburg waved on high as the Steelers brought the fourth Super Bowl Championship home to Steel City. It was such a nice day Sunday, couldn't do much skating, so I had me a cold Pearl and watched everyone's favorite quarterback throw three interceptions on his way to being named MVP. One of the best Super Bowls ever, excluding Super Bowl III when everyone's second favorite quarterback, whose pantyhose I buy, led the underdog New York Jets to a 16-7 win over the Baltimore Colts. Everyone's third favorite quarterback Johnny Unitas threw a 75-yard touchdown pass to John Mackey for a Super Bowl record. So only one more game this year and we can devote all our time to basketball.

Speaking of football, there were probably a few people who attended the Chamber Installation Dinner that felt like they played football on the next morning. What a great time.

The evening featured a great meal and grand entertainment. Dan Dugenske was named president, Mark McKinney, first vice president, Bill Groeninger, second vice president, and Sharon Simon, secretary-treasurer. Directors for this year are Pat Sershon, Peter Cleven, Bruce Jablonski, Bernje Gunty Sr., and Robert Taubitz.

Everyone had nothing but good things to say about the affair, and there were people there from all over the state. To honor Dugenske, Polish Ambassador Stashu Wojciechowski of Chicago was on hand to praise him for his service to the Polish society. The all-mighty ambassador looked vaguely familiar to me, but I just couldn't place his face. I think I saw him once before around Waukegan, or was it Grayslake?...

Anyhow, past-President Bill Bishoff gave everyone's favorite secretary, Dixie Sparks a spray of roses for all her hard work throughout the year. Dixie in her usual frankness told everyone that she deserved every one of the beautiful flowers.

Did you know that Dave Zickus and Tom Kelly wear athletic socks, even to nice parties?

Bank President Bill Brook was a delightful emcee, and everyone's favorite Mayor Mike and wife Sue were in attendance along with a whole bunch of village and township officials.

By the way, the band Favour was just what the party needed to top things off, and everyone has an opportunity to hear them again at the Jaycees DSA banquet coming up on Feb. 2.

Don't forget retail

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry has launched a new year with high spirits and enthusiasm. We wish much success for the newly installed president, Dan Dugenske, and his officers.

In his inaugural statement, Dugenske pledged to continue the industrial awareness program instituted by retiring President William C. Bishoff, and he announced a goal for 1980 of pushing for industrial growth.

To a casual observer, Dugenske's interest in promoting more industry may come as a surprise because Antioch already is blessed with an impressive industrial sector that is the envy of neighboring communities. A steady flow of paychecks, nevertheless, is the foundation of the economy. New employment opportunities — and more paychecks — obviously will translate advances for all.

We would caution the Chamber leadership, however, not to lose sight of the needs of the retail community. There are signs that Antioch's stature as a retail center is being challenged. Sales tax income, an excellent barometer, shows a negative slide. Our business district is under pressure both from the general economy and continuing competition from neighboring shopping center. Business property owners greeted proposals from the village council for a special tax district to finance needed improvements with less than enthusiasm. Inflation is pushing up tax evaluation of retail property, while at the same time there is a softening in demand for store rentals. The combination of the two factors results in deterioration — and decline.

Without question, bringing in new industry and new jobs is a way of enhancing Antioch's general economy. The Antioch News just wants to make sure retailing isn't overlooked. As we were saying, the new Chamber leaders have our wishes for a good year. All of us have a stake in their success.

Letter to the Editor

GREAT LOSS

Editor:

A lot of hearts were saddened by Bill Dombrow's passing so suddenly. He had a cheery smile and a friendly handshake, which will be missed by all the friends he met along the way.

Many of his friends met at the Chapel and in the Church to bid him farewell for the last time. He was respected and admired by so many.

He had a deep concern to be a Good Samaritan. He would give a helping hand wherever he could. He lived a good Christian life and tried to inspire others to attend the church of their faith.

He loved his family dearly. May you rest in peace dear friend. Good Bye Bill and fare-thee-well.

Rebekahs carry tradition, help folks

by LILA OLSON

On Jan. 10, 1902, the first meeting of the Lakeside Rebekah Lodge No. 82 in Antioch, was called to order by Sister Nellie Harris. Thirty-five members were present and an election was held. Voted into office were Mary Van Patten - Noble Grand, Rebecca Burnett - Vice Grand, Gertrude Blanchard - Recording Secretary, Belle Shugart - Financial Secretary and Cora Mullen - Treasurer. After their installation into office, Mary Van Patten and Rebecca Burnett appointed the following people to fill the remaining positions as required by Lodge rules. Ida Proctor was selected to assume the post of Past Grand, C. B. Harrison was chosen as Lodge Deputy, and Sister Harrison, Sister Hayes and Brother N. J. Pullen were appointed as the finance committee.

To many residents of Antioch, the above names will be familiar — not only because these were some of the prominent pioneer stock of Antioch, but because descendants of those first members are still well-known citizens of the town and have upheld their families traditions by continuing as active members of Lakeside Rebekah Lodge No. 82, some unto the fourth generation.

THE REBEKAH Lodge is an affiliate of one of the oldest fraternal organizations in the world, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. The Odd Fellows groups have been in existence in England since the 1700's, but the first meeting of the American Odd Fellows was held at the Seven Stars Tavern in Baltimore on April 26, 1819.

The symbol of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges is the chain of triple links. The first link represents the bond of friendship, the second is love, and the third is for truth. It is through these precepts that the lodge still continues to be motivated to the betterment of mankind. They have established homes for the senior citizens, provided orphanages for homeless children, helped promote the World Eye Bank, and have established an educational foundation. They also participate in such diverse activities as the building of the Peace Garden that honors more than 100 years of peace between Canada and the United States, and the promotion of the Rose Bowl Parade in California each year.

The ceremonies that marked the meetings of the first Rebekah Lodges are still in practice today, and the Bible is an important part of all Rebekah-Odd Fellow activities. Time honored traditions such as the password, the presentation of the flag, and other protected rites bind generation to generation. During the bi-centennial celebration in the United States, the Rebekahs of Antioch published an original cook book which contained not only a lot of good recipes, but brief histories of both the Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges and of Antioch, a 150 year calendar, a calorie counter, a map of Antioch, and other useful information. At this same time, Sherene Jones, an active member of the Rebekahs, won the fire hydrant decorating contest and donated her $200 prize to the Lodges senior citizens home which is located in Mattoon.

IN ANTIOCH today, the 56 members of Lakeside Lodge are still meeting twice a month. They have a booth at the Arts and Crafts Fair every year, and each active member contributes something to making this a much visited exhibit. On display are quilts, plants, embroidery work, knitting, crocheting, and other interesting things.

The close, understanding fellowship enjoyed by lodge members seems unique in this world of today where words such as charity, love, truth, friendship, patriotism, and faith in God and humanity may seem passe, but not when they are combined with the sincerity that this group employs.

On Jan. 16, another installation of officers was held by the Lakeside Rebekah Lodge in Antioch just as was the first one on Jan. 10, 1902. Some of the names have changed, but several of the participants are descendants of those original officers. Last year's officers were Valeria Talbert is the Noble Grand, Mary Jones - Vice Grand, Claire Horton - Recording Secretary, Mary Ellis - Financial Secretary, and Shirley Glenn - Treasurer. Installed Jan. 16 were Mary Jones who will assume the position of Noble Grand, and Valeria Talbert, who will become the Vice Grand.

The other three officers will retain their positions of last year. Mary Ellis has been financial secretary for 20 years. Ida Wysoglad is now a Past Noble Grand and Zella Larson is Appointed Officer Warden. THE MEN and women of this group range in age from 30 to 90 with Addie Horton of Antioch as the oldest member. Any person above the age of 18, that passes all the qualifications of the lodge is invited to become a member of this fine old organization that has helped make Antioch the kind of place it is today.

For further information about the Rebekahs, contact Zella Larson at 395-1157.

Winter rec programs slated in Antioch

The Antioch Parks and Recreation Department has listed its winter programs for this year. The activities are under the direction of Dee Lang, recreation coordinator, and Glenda Tomaschik, recreation director.

For the upcoming programs, the department has listed a policy which includes: all programs are contingent on sufficient enrollment and are subject to cancellation. Registration is based on a first come first serve basis, and there will be no refunds unless the class is cancelled by the administration.

Also, there is an additional fee for non-residents, people residing outside the township limits. That fee will be half of the amount of the fee for the program.

Registration must be made in person and cannot be made by phone. Registration can be made at the parks and recreation office located at the Antioch Village Hall at 874 Main St. Hours there are Monday-Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m., and Saturday 9-noon.

Emmons has new art class

Emmons Grade School has a new art program that went into affect this month. A local artist, Mrs. Shirley Grego, is working in cooperation with classroom teachers and instructing class on a regular basis.

According to Supt. John Kakacek, students are getting the opportunity to learn the more technical drawing of figures rather than just pasting and cutting.

In other discussion the board learned that the English series study is progressing, and the school will either be using material from McMillan or Ginn to update the series.

The school is also looking into joining a film co-op through Gavin Grade School. In conjunction with that, the school will be looking into the possibility of purchasing a TV video recorder as there are more up-to-date films available on cassettes than reels.

The board is also making plans for this year's school board election to be held in April. Two board members, Ann Kaiser and Carl Fisher, will have exhausted terms.

Church history plated by United Methodists

The United Methodist Church of Antioch celebrated its centennial birthday in November and has received a collector's plate that can be purchased.

There were only 300 of the plates made, and the cost is $7.50 per plate. Arrangements to purchase them can be made by calling 395-3218, in the evenings.

The plate's design was made by Mrs. Jane Craner, art instructor at the Antioch Community High School and was the first plate she ever designed.

The drawing on the plate depicts the original Baptist Church in which services were first held, and the present structure, located on Main St., that was built in 1901. There is also a brief history on the back of the plate.

The decals were made and applied by Berggen-Traynor Corp. in Libertyville on a 10-inch dinner plate from Pickard China of Antioch.

On Jan. 18, the Rev. Steve Williams, pastor at the United Methodist Church, presented a plate to Betty Lu Williams of the Historical Society.

Give the gift of life

Thanks to the overwhelming response of the previous donors, as well as many new donors, St. Peter's Parish Blood Drive should draw well over the 200 needed pints. At this point, the only things that would interfere with meeting our goal would be bad weather, the flu bug, or colds.

The blood drawing by Red Cross personnel will take place from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. this Saturday, Jan. 26, in St. Peter's Social Center. It is suggested that donors arrive 10 to 15 minutes before their appointed time for registration so that they will be ready to have their blood drawn at the appointed time.

The blood being drawn this Saturday is very badly needed, as supplies are normally very low in January. Donors may be assured that every drop given will be used and that none will be wasted.

Police make arrest

Antioch Police arrested a 19-year-old young man for possession of cannabis on Jan. 17. Officer Ronald Roth arrested David L. Haarstad of Lake Villa and charged him with driving on a suspended license, unlawful use of a driver's license and possession of cannabis. Haarstad was released on bond and will appear in the Fox Lake Branch Court on Feb. 7.

Power squad boats for safety

Safety is the name of the game in the free boating instruction being offered by the Chain O'Lakes Power Squadron. The proper operation of all types of boats, especially the family outboard, is emphasized in the 10-week course which began Jan. 16.

Registration will take place at the second meeting at 7:30 p.m. at Grant High School, 285 E. Grand Ave., Fox Lake. It is open to interested men, women, and older teens. It is not necessary to be a boat owner.

Aimed to teach the minimal knowledge required for safe boating, completing the course will increase the boatman's confidence, according to Juergen Geithe, commander of the Chain O'Lakes Squadron. It will lay a basic foundation for building boating skills by further study, application and experience.

The classes cover such subjects as boat handling under normal and adverse conditions, seamanship and common emergencies, rules of the road, aids to navigation, compass and chart familiarization, running lights and equipment, boat trailering and river boating.

"A boater, being responsible for himself and his passengers, who goes out on the water without proper knowledge of the rules of the road, safety requirements or aids to navigation, is asking for trouble," Geithe said. "With the information he may gain from this free instruction, he can have his boat properly equipped and be able to cope with the many situations he may face on the water," he added.

The Chain O'Lakes Power Squadron is a unit of the United States Power Squadrons, largest volunteer educational organization for boatmen in the world. Its members are men dedicated to promote safety in boating through education and donate their time to this service. There are more than 400 squadrons in the United States, with nearly 85,000 members.

Foreman pledges open-door policy

"The public has a right to know how the crime problem is being handled in their community," stated Fred Foreman, Republican candidate for Lake County State's Attorney.

Foreman pledged that he would be personally accessible to the news media during his administration. Foreman said that the only times information will be withheld or comment reserved is if its release would prevent the arrest or conviction of a suspect or if it would prejudice pending grand jury proceedings.

"The policy of making news available when it happens alerts the public to any immediate danger and offers the opportunity to respond by providing information which may lead to the apprehension of the suspect," Foreman said.

"Throughout our nation's history, a free press that probes, analyzes, reports, praises and criticizes actions of public officials, from the local level to the halls of Washington, has been a vital ingredient of democracy," the Waukegan attorney said.

Check wood stoves

The only way to not have a fire, is to prevent it, according to the fire prevention bureau of the Antioch Fire Dept.

During the past few months, the Antioch Fire Department has been called to extinguish fires that have been caused by wood burning stoves. Assistant Chief Jim Quedenfeld of the Antioch Fire Prevention Bureau suggests that anyone installing a wood type burning stove in their residence should follow some simple safety rules.

First, have the stove installed by a competent installer of stoves. Secondly, if it is a do-it-yourself project, please pick up a copy of recommended installation procedures from the Antioch Village Hall or the Antioch Fire Station.

Lastly, if there are concerns about the safety of a wood burning stove, contact the Antioch Fire Dept. at 395-8585, and an inspection will be made.

Offedahl, Brook Antioch service unit members

The Salvation Army was founded in 1965 when William Booth, a Methodist minister, began to preach in the slums of London. At first, this army was persecuted because it was so unusual. But, the army successfully attacked—hunger, homelessness and poverty. During World War II, the Salvation Army offered a variety of services to the armed forces and led in the formation of the U.S.O. since the war the army has continued its comprehensive services.

In the city of Chicago the Salvation Army provides many different social services. The emergency lodge, for instance, provides shelter for people evicted or burned out of their homes, and a residential program for battered women. Booth Memorial Hospital is a comprehensive medical and residential facility for unwed mothers. The Harbor Light Center has programs for the alcoholic and drug abuser. These are but a few of the services offered in Chicago facilities.

In areas where there are no existing Salvation Army Facilities other services are available. In 150 communities, in the greater Chicago area, groups of volunteers who form service units, continue the work of the army. These service units offer emergency, short-term help to people in need. This includes, but is not limited to help with rent, security deposits, food, shelter, health and dental care, utilities (including gas and electric) and clothing. Service unit members also help the needy at Christmas time. In the summer Camp Wonderland offers a week of camping in Wisconsin to children 8-12 years old who wouldn't normally be able to go to camp. Referrals for camp are usually made by service unit members.

The service unit in Lake County consist of local civic and business leaders who serve in the name of the Salvation Army throughout the year. Service unit members who can be contacted for services in the Antioch area are, Everett Offedahl, 395-0491 and William Brook, 395-2700 in Antioch.

Grade school board settles on garage bid

The Antioch Grade School Board discussed and approved a proposal for the construction of a new bus garage to be located in front of the upper grade school.

The board voted to purchase a Menard metal building at the cost of $65,518.60.

The new site of the building would eliminate the overcrowded playground area at the lower grade school where the buses are currently stored and also eliminate some of the congestion in the downtown area at the arrival and dismissal times of bused school children.

The board will meet with the village board of Antioch and Antioch State Bank President Bill Brook to transfer the lease on the old building so that it can be used by the historical society as a museum.

The school will be funding the new garage through the sale of portable buildings and other funds the school maintains.

The board also approved a special education policy stating that the Antioch School District recognizes school children's disabilities and will hold an annual screening to identify those with handicaps.

The screening will include, identifying those who may need special education, hearing and vision screening, speech and language screening and identification of those children who exhibit problems which interfere with their educational progress and/or their adjustment to the educational setting.

Excitement builds as contest draws nearer

Excitement is building for the Miss Antioch Pageant finals at Antioch High School on Saturday, March 29.

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry, sponsor of the second annual pageant event, is receiving applications from young ladies in northern Lake County who will be competing on the basis of talent, personality, beauty and poise for the title of Miss Antioch.

The present Miss Illinois 1980, Elizabeth Russell of Pekin, will be an honored guest at the Antioch pageant this year, and will perform her talent presentation as an accomplished vocalist. The pageant program will also include the exciting sound of Antioch High School Jazz Band under the direction of John Olizar.

"We have received many requests for tickets from 1980 queens of local Illinois pageants, who went on to compete for the title of Miss Illinois in Aurora last year," said Marlo Good, Antioch pageant chairman.

"The competition with talented candidates and the final official appearance of the reigning Miss Antioch, Lillian Foreman, promises an evening of good entertainment."

Judging of qualified candidates will be based on the same values as considered at the Miss Illinois Pageant in Aurora and the national Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City.

Application for candidates who wish to participate and compete for scholarship awards may apply in person at the Chamber of Commerce office at 880 1/2 Main St., Antioch, or mail the completed application to the same address. For more information, call the Chamber office at 395-3381, or contact chairman, Marlo Good (395-2485) or Bill Groeninger, co-chairman at 395-2700.

Jaycee week proclaimed

The Antioch Jaycees and Mayor Michael Haley have proclaimed the week of Jan. 21 as Jaycee week.

The Jaycees are a group of young men between the ages of 18 and 36, and are active in the Antioch community by striving for self-accomplishment through the betterment of the community.

The group has brought much fun to the Antioch community by sponsoring such activities as the haunted house, Easter egg hunt, Santa phone, which drew over 300 responses this year, a dunk tank during Maxwell Street Days, and an outing to a Cub ballgame for underprivileged children.

THE JAYCEES ARE ALSO responsible for Las Vegas night, proceeds benefiting Viking football, highway holdup, proceeds benefiting juvenile diabetes, a movie for children, admission with a canned good, proceeds benefiting senior citizens, and they will sell roses to sponsor a handicapped youth from the area at camp.

Some of the projects the Jaycees help with are the bike-a-thon for cancer, and the foot race sponsored by the Antioch Parks and Recreation Department.

Th Jaycees sponsor a little league team, and have provided playground equipment at Jensen's Park.

Some near-future events sponsored by the Jaycees are the distinguished service awards banquet, honoring outstanding young leaders in the Antioch community, a shooting education program, and a blood drive.

BOTH THE DSA AND shooting education program can enter participants in state and national competition. According to Don O'Connor, ou standing citizens recognized on the national level don't have to be in the national spotlight, although John Denver has been recognized as one of ten outstanding citizens in the nation.

Some projects the Jaycees hope to offer soon are a cardiopulmonary resuscitation class and a vile of life program.

Although the Jaycees are very community oriented, they work on personal development by offering members awards for individual achievements. Areas of personal achievement include financial planning, public speaking, leadership training, goal setting, and family life.

The Jaycees attend three statewide general assemblies per year where they exchange ideas with other groups. The state convention this year will be held in May in St. Louis, and will be held in conjunction with Missouri's state convention.

THE JAYCEES, FORMERLY called the Junior Chamber of Commerce, is an international organization and has been active in the United States for 59 years. There are over 400,000 men involved in over 8,000 communities throughout the U.S.

The Antioch Jaycees have been active in the Antioch community since the sixties, however the early 70's brought on full-scale activities.

A Jaycette Chapter has recently been formed.

Anyone wishing more information about the Jaycees may phone Ray Utterback, membership vice president, at 395-2700.

Grade school news

The screening process will not be limited to these four points, but will use them as a guideline. If exceptional children are recognized through this process, they will be referred for a case study evaluation.

Parents as well as school district personnel may request an evaluation. When there are differences between the local school district and the parents or other persons having primary care and custody of the child which cannot be resolved through regular procedures available through the district, an impartial due process hearing can be called. The local school district shall be responsible for informing the parents of their right to a hearing and the procedures to follow to make a request for such a hearing.

In other discussion, the board made a resolution concerning the election in April. There will be three, three-year terms that expire this year: Garnett Cook, Bruce Jablonski and president, Gail Heath.

The board also discussed the boundaries to be used for the three schools instructing children in grades one through five. According to Supt. Don Skidmore, if the boundaries of the schools are fixed, then the teachers can be distributed by dividing the district average into the school's enrollment. This would provide for a good teacher to student ratio.

The school's current district wide average is 23.5 children per class with some classes having as low as 19 children, and some with as high as 30.

The projection for the enrollment for next year is 828, which would drop the student average to 23 students per class.

Dollar days slated

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry Retail Committee has announced that this year's "Dollar Days" will be held from Feb. 13-16.

According to LoAl Clark, retail committee chairperson, shoppers should watch the ads to see which of the Antioch merchants will be participating in the post-holiday bargains. Ms. Clark also stated that she will be contacting merchants to finalize plans for the promotion.

The retail committee meets the second Monday of each month at the Vault Restaurant, and members of the committee are LoAl Clark, Su Siwula, Jim Mirek, Dan Dreyer, Lillian Niemann, Laddie Korecek, Dick Paddock, Sandy Siegmeyer and Tom Hucker.

Sequoits snap losing streak

The Antioch High School Sequoit basketball team snapped its five game losing streak by defeating both Warren and Lake Forest Jan. 18 and 19.

According to head coach Roger Andrews, the Sequoits showed a little more poise and follow through in both of these victories, something the Sequoits have been lacking of late.

The Sequoit's 76-60 win over the Warren Blue Devils, and 48-45 victory over the Lake Forest Scouts, pushed their Northwest Suburban Conference record to 3-4 and overall record to 7-8.

Grant will host the Sequoits Jan. 25, and the Sequoits will be on home court on Jan. 26 against Grayslake. Both are NWSC games, and the Sequoits have suffered defeats in previous contests with the teams. "We'll be looking for wins this weekend as we lost to both teams in previous contests," Andrews said.

"Grant is a tough one as they spot a 5-2 record, and playing on their court makes it a little harder," Andrews said.

The Sequoits shot well in the first half against the Warren team and led 41-40 into the half. Warren's Keith Artelt was the mainstay for the Blue Devils as he shot for 24 points.

Pete Weber came off the Sequoit bench, and proved to be the stabilizer in the second half, ending the game with nine points and as many assists.

The Sequoits shot 65 percent from the free throw line, and claimed 27 rebounds as opposed to 22 for the Blue Devils.

Ronny Nauman led the Sequoits with 28 points, while Kurt Selak, coming off an ankle injury, chipped in 14. Dee Maras added 12 and grabbed nine rebounds.

Antioch held a size advantage in the Lake Forest game, but the Sequoits faced a team that played very controlled ball. "We changed our defense in the second half, and forced the issue with them," Andrews said.

The Sequoits held a 31-30 lead at the end of the third quarter and held only a one point lead with three minutes left in the game. The Scouts began to foul, but missed some free throws allowing the Lake Forest team to stay in the contest.

The two teams only shot 76 times from the floor, while Antioch posted a 14-21 free throw allowance and Lake Forest shot seven of 12.

Selak, the Sequoits outside shooter, played an outstanding game, while Weber again came off the bench to contribute to the win, according to Andrews.

Nauman finished the game with 17 points, and Selak posted 11.

"The team played an outstanding defense game, especially on the inside," Andrews said.

Prizes, fishing and fun at derby Feb. 9, 10

Fun, fishing, food and fine weather are the ingredients that make up the fun-filled two day Annual Ice Fishing Derby and Winter Festival, Feb. 9 and 10.

Those in attendance the past few years have enjoyed themselves completely, won many fine prizes and generally widened their circle of friends and fellow fishermen. As a result this major winter festival has drawn attention throughout Illinois and neighboring areas as well.

With fine weather, the fishing should be excellent according to catches being reported in the Chain of Lakes to date. The upper lakes in the chain particularly have been producing exceptional catches with minnows being a very popular bait. Younger fishermen and women seem to be developing serious interest in the sport, with growing numbers getting licenses and working the area.

A most promising indication for the future is the fact that cleaner waters are gradually being reported in many sections of the chain. In addition some lasting benefit in the form of better and more game fish will follow.

The derby already has produced over $5,000 worth of prizes which will be awarded to lucky fishermen and ticket holders.

With grand prizes being a $1,000 and $500 savings bond, and followed by a Power Ice Auger, his and her down jackets, Eureka Ice Fishing Tent, plus hundreds of additional prizes, attendees will have excellent opportunities to walk away happy winners.

Hourly prizes for each of various species of fish caught will be awarded and the program of sack races, ice auger hole drilling contests, egg-throwing contests and children's penny, nickel and dime scramble will provide a large measure of fun for all.

An extra added feature will be the first annual softball tournament, which will surely turn into a competitive, gala event.

The daily programs start at 9 a.m. each day and the final prize awards will be made at 4 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 10.

Ample free parking will be available at Mr. "D" 's Playmore Resort. Hot Food and drinks will also be served at the headquarters, and convenience facilities will be provided as well.

For more information, contact Mike Good at 395-8333.

Antioch's Levoe has highest series, game

The second half of the Antioch High School bowling season began on Jan. 7 with ACHS A squad defeating Grayslake 1911 to 1671 (pin total) and ACHS C squad crushing Grayslake 1515-1237. The girls of A team bowled their best ever in this match: Janie Jorgensen - 486 series (162 av), Cindy Toole - 450 series (150 av), Lisa Holmes - 429 series (143 av) and Jill Levoe - 546 series (182 av). Diane Appelhaus led the C team with a 448 series (149 av) enabling the Sequoits to gain an easy victory.

Jan. 9 found the Sequoits A and C team bowlers once again the victors in the match with Round Lake. ACHS A - 1815/Round Lake A - 1663; ACHS C - 1744/Round Lake C - 1588.

Of the A squad, Jill Levoe bowled an outstanding 553 series (184 av) followed by Cindy Toole with a 493 series (164 av). Lori Meyer C team rolled a fine 505 series (168 av) in that Match event.

On Jan. 14, ACHS faced the powerful Warren girls. The match was agony for Antioch as the Blue Demons' 1938 pin total overpowered the Sequoits' 1706.

The Sequoits came back to the winning circle when they defeated Wauconda on Jan. 16. ACHS - 1817 - Wauconda - 1614.

Unfortunately, on Jan. 17 the Sequoits bowed their heads in defeat when the Grant bowlers were permitted to bowl under their team average 1769 to still defeat the Sequoits who bowled an embarrassing low 1494 pin total. On the other hand, the Antioch's C squad continued their winning pace by rolling a 1485 over Grant's 1364.

Antioch's A squad posts a 7-5 record while the C squad record is 8-0.

The highest three-game series bowled this season was 553 by Jill Levoe. Jill also rolled the highest game thus far, 228.

The Sequoit bowlers have two more matches; Jan. 23 with Stevenson and Jan. 24 with Woodstock.

The ACHS bowlers will be preparing themselves for the Conference Tournament on Jan. 26 at Stevenson and the District Tournament on Feb. 1 at Round Lake.

It is expected that Warren will take both titles as their bowlers are unbeatable. Grant is the next favorite with Antioch being the third favorite. To win either tournament, the school team will have to bowl at least a 160 average. Antioch bowlers know that they can do that as they proved so in their match with Grayslake on Jan. 7.

Emmons could post 90th consecutive win

The Emmons seventh grade basketball team has won its seventh consecutive Des Plaines - Fox Valley Conference championship with a 10-0 record. This week the Raiders will be seeking their seventh straight conference tournament title. The tournament is being held at Grass Lake School. If they are successful, the Emmons squad will record their 89th and 90th consecutive wins over conference basketball opponents in a streak started seven years ago.

Overall this year, the Raiders are 17-1, defeating non-conference opponents Westfield of Winthrop Harbor, Oak Crest of Waukegan, Gavin, Antioch Upper Grade, and Big Hollow twice. The lone loss came at West Oak in Diamond Lake by a 25-16 score. That loss was avenged when the Raiders dumped the Spirits 34-23 at Emmons.

The Raiders' well balanced scoring attack this year has been led by sixth grade guard/forward Stan Kuligowski, with an average of over nine points per game. Kuligowski also leads the team in steals and free throws. Center Don Chisolm is the team's leading rebounder with nine per game, and is the second leading scorer with 8.5 per game. Playmaking guard Brad Poulter has averaged six points per game and leads the team in assists.

Sixth Grade forward Rob Christiansen is the team's second leading rebounder and is averaging 6.5 points per game. Forward Ken Klean is a valuable rebounder and playmaker, and is considered to be the best man-to-man defender on the team.

Essential to the Raiders' success this year has been a strong bench, led by sixth graders Scot Ranney, Matt Weber, and Bob Hawks. These reserves have been successful also, winning both of their exhibition games against Antioch Upper Grade. In the first game, Weber and Dan Kanabay scored eight points each. In the second game, fifth grader Tom Durell led the team with seven points, while Pat McKinney hit for four and Randy Steiskal for three.

Antioch frosh remain unbeaten

Antioch's freshman "A" basketball team remained unbeaten in conference play by downing Warren 61-46 last Saturday. The young Sequoits are now 7-0 in the conference and 9-3 overall.

The win was a good team effort. Tom Anderson had a fine game with 23 points and 11 rebounds. Brad Herbst added 10 points, Craig Sheedlo and Chris Becker each scored nine points and Tim Hartokolis chipped in eight points.

Beckes was credited with eight rebounds and Herbst handed out six assists.

As A team Antioch shot a very good 58 percent from the field and an excellent 81 percent from the free throw line. Warren was out-rebounded 33-16.

In the B game, Warren jumped out to a big lead and withstood an Antioch rally to win 42-38. The Sequoits out-scored Warren 19 to 9 in the fourth quarter but fell short. Andy Runyard scored nine points and John Andre added seven to lead Antioch. The B team is now 3-4 in the conference and 4-5 overall.

Antioch travels to Grant Jan. 26 and plays Grayslake at home on Jan. 28 at 4:30 p.m.

Grapplers hit 4-0 record

Antioch varsity wrestlers ran their NWSC record to 4-0 with a 28-27 win over Warren Jan. 18. The Sequoits split in matches with the Blue Devils 6-6, but pins by Jon Gibson, 126 and George Bessette 145 coupled with a superior decision by Jeff Canella, 138 and Maj Decisions by Dave Unrein, 112, and Chuck Bogaerts, 155 gave Antioch the extra points to win.

Jan. 25, the Sequoits host the Wauconda Bulldogs at home in the last home meet. This will be parent's night for 1979-1980 season and all Sequoit parents are encouraged to attend.

Jan. 19 the Sequoits hosted Glenbrook North and Palatine, losing two close meets 26-25 to Palatine and 29-25 to Glenbrook North.

INSURANCE INFORMATION

I bought a camper which is designed to be mounted on a pickup. I carry a Homeowner's and an Automobile policy. Will the camper be insured under one of these policies?

Yes. Depending upon the situation, the camper would be covered under either policy. The definition of a camper body is extremely broad and not only includes manufactured campers and toppers but also any body designed to be mounted upon an automobile and equipped as sleeping or living quarters. Your Homeowner's would insure the camper only when it is off the pickup and sitting on your premises. When the camper is mounted on the truck, the Physical Damage portion of your Automobile policy will extend to provide insurance. Ask your agent if it is necessary for the description of the camper to be endorsed on the Automobile Policy.

Following 20 minutes of deliberation, a Circuit Court jury declared T. J. Stahl, Antioch real estate dealer, victorious in a two-day court fight against Wilbur Glenn Voliva for $5,000 in commission on a real estate sale, Monday afternoon.

The defense, seeking to prove that Stahl was unauthorized as an agent for Voliva's property, produced only two witnesses, Voliva himself not appearing in court. Stahl contended that he had entered into an oral contract with Clifford Leach, Voliva's agent, which granted him 5 per cent commission for the sale of a 300-acre parcel of land in western Zion. The defense stated that Voliva had no knowledge of the contract and hence was not bound by it. Stahl showed that he had sold the land to Mrs. Julia M. Baker of Chicago for $100,000.

Facing the prospects of spending from one year to life in Joliet penitentiary, Arthur Reid, 41, whose convictions date back to his boyhood, was found guilty of attempted burglary and larceny. Reid was wounded in the Soo line yards at Lake Villa last fall by J. W. DeGoff a railroad detective.

Millburn Mutual Insurance Co. celebrates its 75th birthday. It was more than 75 years ago that a house belonging to George Strang Millburn burned to the ground, and it was found that the company in which he carried insurance was insolvent and the property was a total loss. This incident set the people thinking, and Father Dodge was the prime mover in forming the company that is now recognized as one of the strongest mutual companies in Illinois. The first meeting was called on March 5, 1855. Captain Robert Pollock was elected temporary chairman. W. T. Buffman was elected temporary secretary. It was moved by Mr. Buffman and seconded by Rev. W. B. Dodge that the operations of this company be confined to within about four miles of the meeting house at Millburn.

While other parts of Illinois were fighting flood waters, Antioch Township High had its own little flood this week. A broken water main beneath the building spurted water through the floors of the library and the cafeteria. It was first thought that the water came from the heavy rains, but on Tuesday when it increased despite freezing weather the school authorities came to the conclusion that the source was a broken main. The water was shut off and basketball players had to go home for their showers.

JAYCEE WEEK

JANUARY 20-26, 1980

Mayor Mike Haley proclaims Jaycee Week, while Antioch Jaycee President, Wayne Salonen and Chairman Ron Van Scoyoc look on.

The Antioch Jaycees Would Like To Thank The Community For Their Continuous Support

THE JAYCEE CREED

WE BELIEVE:

- That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
- That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
- That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
- That government should be of laws rather than of men;
- That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;
- And that service to humanity is the best work of life.
